CONTRIBUTORS TO THE UNITED WORKERS

First List of Those Who Have Responded to the District Visitors.

The committee on district visitation which publishes the first list of contributors for 1915 to the United Workers, states, through its chairman, Anna Chisholm Dawley, that it seems fitting in view of the understanding in some quarters, to say that the United Workers hopes to retain the interest, name, and contribution of every former donor.

The need for increasing the work in many departments is great, and their larger income is not sufficient without the help of their friends. The expenses for 1914 having been $15,000 it will be readily understood that, even though we have more income than before, we still need the gifts, large or small, that come through our district visitors.

We are glad to say that from nearly every district larger than the gift are a little larger than last year, and we wish to thank these contributors for their continued interest in and for their gifts to the United Workers.

The following are the names of those contributing through the district visitors:

$3,000 ASKED IN SUIT OVER COLLISION

Because of Auto Accident in Tylerville—Stonington Woman Plaintiff.

Because of an automobile collision on November 7, 1915, at Tylerville, Elizabeth Hammacher of Stonington has brought suit against Christine Lohmeyer of Hartford for $3,000 damages. The papers in the case, which is returnable on the first Tuesday in December, were filed on Monday at the office of the clerk of the superior court.

The complaint is that, while Mrs. Hammacher was riding in an automobile driven by her husband, the car was run into by Mrs. Lohmeyer's automobile which was operated by her agent at a dangerous rate of speed and did not turn to the right side of the road but kept on the left side.

Another December case filed on Monday was the divorce suit of Peter Leyden of Groton against Mary E. Leyden of Old Saybrook. He was married to her on June 13, 1893, her maiden name being McDonald. In his suit the husband alleges that his wife committed a statutory offense with Arthur Ennis at Groton and Old Saybrook since January 1, 1907. The petitioner asks for the custody of four children ranging in age from 15 to 3 years.

STEPHEN C. PARKER

MRS. STEPHEN C. PARKER

WEDDED A HALF CENTURY

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen C. Parker Were Married by Montville Pastor 50 Years Ago—Were Given Surprise Saturday Night at Their Home at East Great Plain—Montville and Willimantic Friends Arrived to Bring Congratulations.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen C. Parker, who were given a surprise party on Saturday night at their home at East Great Plain, in honor of their golden wedding anniversary, are both natives of Montville and have made that town their home ever since they were married, with the exception of the last two years, during which their residence has been where they now live.

Not only has their home been in Montville for 48 of the 50 years of their married life, but it has been the same farm for all that period, a place about a mile below the Congregational church. They were married on Nov. 27, 1867, by the pastor of the Montville Congregational church, who was Rev. William Dickinson at that time, the ceremony taking place at the home of the bride's parents, Hiram P. and Lucy Palmer Baker.

Mr. Parker has been a farmer all his life and has been successful in that line, so that two years ago when he found that the active life of the farm was more than he wanted to continue any longer, he disposed of his place and located at East Great Plain, Willimantic, where he has since been engaged in business.

Mr. Parker was at one time an assessor in the town of Montville, but he has never taken a very active interest in politics, nor had he been interested in fraternal organizations.

In the party of about 40 who gave them the surprise party on Saturday night were 11 of their Montville friends, including Mrs. Charles Scholfield, who is 92, and about six friends from the day as the only witness for the defense. Testimony in which he alleged that there were motives behind his prosecution, possibly unknown to the indicting grand jury, was ruled out by the court.

Assistant District Attorney Miller, in addressing the jury, said the question of guilt rested solely on whether the language complained of, which occurred in articles attacking the Roman Catholic church, was improper. The defendant personally and through counsel had said he did not seek to "avoid responsibility for the mailing of the matter referred to."

White, according to the police, admitted having written to Mrs. Galt and Mrs. Bolling concerning a patent egg carrier to be used in the mails and two new musical instruments. The prisoner said, the police added, that he wrote the first letter for a Samuel Osborne of Chicago, who had invented one of the musical instruments.

White told the police that he met Mrs. Galt and her mother at the Grand Central Palace here in 1913.

Bandits Get $1,500 from Bank. Minneapolis, Minn., Nov. 29.—Three armed bandits entered the Camden Park State bank here today, drove three employees into a vault, obtained $1,500, and escaped in a stolen delivery wagon.

Old Saybrook.—A very interesting meeting of the Red Cross society was held at the Elms last week. The treasurer's report for the past year showed receipts of $514.52, expenditures $247.77.

WATSON THE ONLY WITNESS

IN HIS OWN DEFENSE.
Charged With Sending Obscene Matter Through Mails.

Augusta, Ga., Nov. 29.—Final arguments were begun today by attorneys in the trial of Thomas E. Watson, the Georgia editor, on a charge of sending obscene matter through the mails in his publications. The case probably will go to the jury tomorrow.

Watson himself took the stand during the day as the only witness for the defense. Testimony in which he alleged that there were motives behind his prosecution, possibly unknown to the indicting grand jury, was ruled out by the court.

Assistant District Attorney Miller, in addressing the jury, said the question of guilt rested solely on whether the language complained of, which occurred in articles attacking the Roman Catholic church, was improper. PRESIDENT WILSON HAS COMPLETED HIS MESSAGE.

It is Understood That There Are Less Than 4,000 Words in the Document.

Washington, Nov. 29.—President Wilson tonight completed his annual address to congress which he will read at a joint session of the senate and house on Monday morning. In preparation of the address the president has followed the precedent set by him when he inaugurated the custom of reading his national guard in congress in person, and it contains a long review of the activities of the different government departments. It is understood that there are less than 4,000 words in the document. In order to finish today, the president saw no callers and worked in his study from the time of his arrival from New York early in the morning until tonight.

It has been definitely established that the president will read other messages to congress after the Christmas recess, in order that he may take up subjects not bearing on national preparedness.

GOVERNOR OF LOUISIANA IS TO SUPPRESS LOTTERIES
Has Ordered a Company of National Guard Into Camp.

New Orleans, La., Nov. 29.—Governor Broussard today ordered the National Guard company of the Louisiana National guard into camp near Southport, in Jefferson parish, which adjoins this city. The governor declined to say whether he would proclaim martial law, but said the troops would be held there. It is alleged the state law against lotteries is being violated in Southport. Some lottery shops have been raided.

MAYOR DONOVAN OF MERIDEN WINS RENOMINATION
Secured a Majority of Delegates Elected at Ward Caucuses.

Meriden, Conn., Nov. 29.—Mayor Daniel J. Donovan will be renominated for mayor by the republican party Tuesday evening, having secured a majority of the delegates elected at the five ward caucuses tonight. He was opposed by George Smith, who succeeded in capturing two wards, First and Third, with a total voting strength of 24 delegates, against Mayor Donovan's 34 delegates.

VOTED DOWN PROTEST OF PREPAREDNESS PLAN.
Upper South Carolina Conference of M. E. Church, South.

Spartanburg, N. C., Nov. 29.—The upper South Carolina conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, today voted down overwhelmingly a resolution of protest against the plan of preparedness recently announced by President Wilson.

Bridgeport.—The state police raided the Elm Country club of Greens Farms, at 2 o'clock Saturday morning and arrested George S. Jennings, manager, and Thomas Eaton, waiter, as well as ten frequenters, four of whom were women. The frequenters gave fake names.

The suit brought in the superior court by Lewis H. Scranton of New London against the Thames River Specialties Co., of Montville, manufacturers of paper, for $10,000 damages, alleging breach of contract has been withdrawn. Brown and Perkins were attorneys for the plaintiff who alleged that he was a salesman in the employ of the Thames River Specialties Co. under a contract at $4,000 per year salary and expenses. The contract was to run from Oct. 6, 1910, to April 1, 1915, but on April 7, 1913 the plaintiff claims he was wrongfully discharged. Mr. Scranton also claimed that after the discharge of Superintendent Stevenson in June, 1912, he did extra work for which he was to be paid and this was worth $2,500.

Another suit that has been withdrawn was the replevin suit of Mr. Minnie L. Scranton of New London against Deputy Sheriff J. W. Tubbs who attached a five passenger automobile in connection with the other suit, but Mrs. Scranton claimed the ownership of the automobile.
